A silver Arts & Crafts blister pearl

A silver Arts & Crafts blister pearl, moonstone, stained jasper and rock crystal pendant in the round, c.1930, attributed to Amy Sandheim. Three free-form blister pearl plaques, rub set between pierced gallery bands with a circular cabochon moonstone, rub set above and below. A pierced gallery hoop at the top and bottom, each with a pierced ball and three applied, pear-shaped, stained jasper cabochons in plain rub over settings. Suspended from a faceted rock crystal bead with a wire 'V' shaped bale, a smaller faceted rock crystal bead below with a stained jasper pippin drop

Condition Report

Facet edge wear to the top rock crystal bead. Small shallow dent to the top pierced bead that the jasper cabochons are mounted to.
