A Meissen group

A Meissen group, c.1875-80, of three children playing amongst ruins, after the original by Michel Victor Acier and Johann Carl Schönheit, raised on an oval naturalistic base, with blue crossed swords mark, inscribed 'G32', stamped '57' and numbered '10' in red, 27cm high

Condition Report

Both drum sticks with loss to the boy holding the drum. Herm loose on the base - needs tightening. Chip to the edge of the basket of flowers.
