

Asian Art (A780)

16th May 2018

Viewing: 11 May 2018 By Appointment

13 May 2018 10am - 1pm

14 May 2018 9am - 5pm

15 May 2018 9am - 5pm

16 May 2018 from 9am

Lot 1023

A Khmer sandstone carving of a dancing Apsara

A Khmer sandstone carving of a dancing Apsara, Angkor period, late 12th/early 13th century, in Bayon style, wearing an elaborate headdress and jewellery with a smile on his face, his hands in front of his chest, 43.5cm high

Literature: Réunion des Musées Nationaux 'Angkor et dix siècles d'art Khmer' exhibition, Paris, 1997, cat. no. 88.

Provenance: A private UK collection. Purchased from the Vichai Gallery in Bangkok in 1965 and shipped to London in 1969.

Condition Report

A crack to lower section.