A silver castle top vinaigrette

A silver castle top vinaigrette,
by Joseph Taylor and John Perry, Birmingham, probably 1835,
the cover with a view of Abbotsford Castle, the base engine turned, the grille ornately engraved and pierced, 4.5cm long

Provenance: The Property of a Lady.

Condition Report

Date letter indistinct. The hallmarks clear and the grille is part mauled. Condition, there are dents to sides, the front section has a visible repair to the seam. The Castle top in good order, yet there is dark tarnish to edge.
