

Fine Jewellery and Watches - Live Online (A914)

17th November 2020

Viewing: VIEWING

Due to government guidelines at the current time, we will not be able to offer viewing at the Stansted Mountfitchet saleroom. However, please revisit our website to check for any changes.

Lot 23

Estimate: £150 - £250 + Fees

A pair of early Victorian gold repoussé rococo-style drop earrings,

A pair of early Victorian gold repoussé rococo-style drop earrings, set with blue and red paste, c.1840. A scrolling styled form top with an opaque blue paste and suspended below a gauntlet holding an open scrolling plaque with clamshell to the bottom. A rectangular tablet to the centre, with cabochon red and blue paste in cut down collets, later hook fittings. *Marks indistinct possibly B*S18.* Tested as approximately 18ct gold, wires as approximately 9ct gold. 65 x 24mm, 4.32g (2)

Condition Report

Later hook fittings.

Pinholes and a split to the central rectangular plaque under 10X magnification.