Condition Report

Some damage/chips to the enamel.

A split between the blue enamel dome and the white border in one place.

Ruby looks slightly too small for collet, possibly a later replacement.

Silver front and gold back not soldered solidly all the way round, and gold back a slightly different shape. Probably a later addition, or marriage of parts.

Cluster not central to pendant.

Surface marks/scratches to metal.

Some slight dings to the gold back.
