A mahogany drop-leaf spider leg table,

A mahogany drop-leaf spider leg table,

18th century, the rectangular top raised on slender turned supports, united by straight and wavy stretchers, terminating in pad feet,

102cm wide

84cm deep

71cm high

Condition Report

Looks as though the table has been professionally restored approximately 20 years ago.... Feet have been tipped. Both shaped stretchers broken and repaired. Possibly replacement section to the swinging gate leg. Drop leaves slightly warped. Some marks, scratches and discolouration to top. Knocks, marks splits and repairs to legs. Has been repolished to aid with colour matching repairs. A sweet little table which is well made using good quality timbers.
