Lot 423

Estimate: £400 - £600 + Fees

A fairground fixture,

A fairground fixture,

modelled as a grinning crescent moon, painted and sculpted fibreglass, decorated with lights, mounted on a metal base, 150cm wide

80cm deep
250cm high

This quirky fairground moon is full of character and would make a real statement piece for a home, loft conversion, business or hotel.

The imposing crescent moon, originally on the top of a tower drop-ride called a 'Rocket Ride', has been given a new lease of life. Surface cracks have been carefully repaired using a fibreglass and resin mix, then delicately re-painted.

The piece was destined for the skip after the ride failed technical regulations, but after a full lighting restoration, as well as the introduction of a motor, it can now rotate and dazzle, as a true piece of fairground memorabilia.
