An early 20th century pearl and diamond cartouche shaped pendant,

An early 20th century pearl and diamond cartouche shaped pendant, with a 6.50mm pearl, untested, peg set to the centre. A scrolling open cartouche shaped surround, rub set with three old European cut diamonds, and grain set with old European cut, old Swiss cut and rose cut diamonds. An articulated drop below with three graduated old European cut diamonds, rub set in plain collets to a blade edge bar, with a foliate bale similarly set, suspended on a white gold chain. Chain with convention mark and marked 750. Pendant tested as platinum. 50 x 20mm, 10.72g

Condition Report

Pearl untested.

Evidence on the gallery that there was once a brooch fitting. Light surface marks under 10X magnification.

The solder used to assemble the piece is quite creamy in colour, but consistent with the period.

Diamonds bright and lively.

Set closely together, so a high carat weight of diamond for a piece of this scale.
