An Empire-style patinated and gilt-bronze mantel clock,

An Empire-style patinated and gilt-bronze mantel clock, late 19th century, French, the case surmounted by the figure of a seated astronomer, the white enamel dial set with Roman numerals, housing a movement chiming the hours and half hours on a bell, raised on scrolling bracket feet,
45cm wide
18cm deep
53cm high

Condition Report

General wear and rubbing to case. Cracks and scratches to dial. Associated key present. Globe re-painted, with rubbing and losses. Ticks and chimes when wound at the point of cataloguing, however, this is no guarantee of working order and we would recommend inspection by a professional.
