Condition Report

Cleaned case - clock goes. Further images uploaded. One chip to the top edge of the clock. Some minor scratches to the glass front. Enamelled dial appears fair. One screw head is missing from the lower hinge on the back cover. The other screw heads have been tightened - some scuffing. Pins to the back of the case - shown in the images. The top insert has slightly dropped - as shown in one image - you can see through the case. The pendulum is attached and appears working - or going. No key.
